"The blend of tenor saxophone and acoustic guitar is a beguiling one, and the Californian Acoustic Jazz Quartet exploit it with great skill. A neat, airy band with everything from 6/8 bustles and sly blues to vigorous groove music. . . an extremely promising band."

- Chris Parker,
The Times, London, England.

Defining Contemporary Acoustic Jazz with a unique blend of sophisticated originals and timeless jazz classics

"JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK. . . the group, by the sound of the album, shares a vision of swing, taste and execution. This foursome reflects the true heart of West Coast jazz in the '90s: no nonsense, straight-ahead but not strait-laced and willing to revel in the mellowness that 300-plus days of sunshine and warmth impart to personality. In other words, the Acoustic Jazz Quartet is cool."

- Bill Kohlhaase, the LA Weekly

"[The Acoustic Jazz Quartet's] self titled debut starts swinging and never stops. A White-Hot recommendation."

- C. Michael Bailey, AllAboutJazz.com
